theScreener presents Global Equity "Quick Facts"

the Swiss research house theScreener launches with "Quick Facts" a new generation of single page reports on equities worldwide. The newly developed reports include all important facts of a stock in a uniquely compact format.

With "Quick Facts" theScreener addresses a long-cherished requirement and introduces an all-new variation on its industry-leading comprehensive stock research reports. Aimed at an audience that wants to know only the essentials of an analysis without having to read a lot of text, the new report contains all the key elements on just one single page, such as theScreener's familiar ratings summary "checklist", a peer group comparison, the price and sensitivity evolution, and – if the user chooses – even a stock's overall ESG rating.

The one-page reports are easily accessible on demand and cover 6,000 stocks worldwide. Updated twice a week, they are print-ready and available in four languages. White labeling with custom logo, colors, cover sheets and other custom features is available as an option.

*"We are constantly working on usability as well as expanding the functionality of our research products," says Alain Farwagi, Head of Development of theScreener. "There's an audience that just wants their analysis to be extremely concise. For these people, Quick Facts is the perfect solution as it provides the right information in a smaller, highly convenient package," Farwagi points out.*
